

Community Resources Found on

<http://parentaware.org/learn>

Counting the Stars

No two stars are the same. Each Star Rating builds on the next. Learn more about what makes each Parent Aware Star Rating Different

Affording the Care You Want

There are several programs that can help make child care more affordable.

Children with Special Needs

Some children need additional support. These resources help families access services to help their children grow and develop.

Early Childhood Growth and Development

These resources support young children's growth and development.

Health and Safety and Licensing

Licensing helps ensure that child care and early education programs are meeting basic health and safety standards.

More Family Resources

These websites help families connect with resources in their communities.

Food and Nutrition Programs

These resources help families find healthy food.